Solari Report Update

Estate Planning 101 with Ann Christensen

By Catherine Austin Fitts

“I am thirty and healthy. I don’t need a will. “

“The world is so depressing, planning a will would just make it worse.”

I regularly hear the many reasons why we procrastinate in accomplishing vital personal and family planning.

Or, even more terrifying, “I have an appointment with an attorney to prepare a will. I have not thought through what my personal goals are for my estate and I have not discussed them with my family. An Expert estate and tax attorney will know what is best."

This week on The Solari Report, I will speak with Ann Christensen to help you with inspired estate planning.

Ann is a seasoned trust officer based in Santa Fe, New Mexico. She has a remarkable gift for helping people organize the personal and financial aspects of their lives.

In Money & Markets this week I will discuss latest trends in the financial markets.

In Let's Go to the Movies, I will review the new series of Downton Abbey, describing the family challenges that result when family heir Matthew Crawley fails to make a will.

If you are road tripping through Texas or ready to have your next smashing party in the West, check out Texas Theatre in Ballinger.

Just A Taste - Fail into 3.0

Get a "taste" of The Solari Report with this video excerpt from last week's report:

"Our theme tonight is 'Failure is an Option.' We're living in a world where there is 2 models. We have one economy, which I call Global 2.0, that is full of large organizations that have more liabilities than assets and is risk adverse. Global 3.0 is filled with private entrepreneurs and investors and we're seeing the money really begin to flow."
