Precious Metals Market Report with Franklin Sanders - April 10th

By Catherine Austin Fitts

This week on The Solari Report, we will post my Precious Metals Market Report interview with Franklin Sanders of The Moneychanger. Gold and silver prices rose in the first quarter and have started to move lower as the consolidation that began in the fall of 2011 continues.

What has been happening in the precious metals markets? Why so much high strangeness in the events around these markets? How do gold and silver market performance relate to what has been happening in the global economy? We will address

Highlights from Last Week's Report

"There's tremendous financial growth if you reorganize the financial system and heal the environment to bring this into alignment with the environment. This is tremendous growth that can come on the financial side. All those greedy investment bankers can make money killing the environment, so don't believe that it's not possible to live in harmony with the planet and have financial growth. It's very possible."
