Solari Report Update

Towards a More Coherent Mind with Jon Rappoport

By Catherine Austin Fitts

This week on The Solari Report, I will be speaking with Jon Rappoport about mind control. This is a topic I covered in "The Layman's Guide to Mind Control." However, various kinds of mind control keep coming up throughout many of our recent discussions.

One of my goals is to be as coherent as possible. Yet I must navigate in a world where I, like all of us, am a target of various mind control efforts. How do I see and understand the mind control tactics being used to engineer and promote an "official reality." How do I protect my decisions, my time and my

Highlights from Last Week's Report

"The thing that finally got me to sit down and say we've just got to get Smith on The Solari Report was your recent blog on the Ukraine and where you quote one of your many readers as describing soft weapons.

I was intrigued by it because I have felt a great deal of frustration over the last decade and a great deal of divide between many financial commentators and me. This may be because of the importance I see of soft weapons playing a role in managing the economy and its role in determining what happens to you politically. So I said, "okay, this is a great place to bring up the topic of soft weapons and the role of soft weapons in a much greater centralized management of the economy."
