Selling You to You with Jon Rappoport - July 17th

"Let others lead small lives, but not you. Let others argue over small things, but not you. Let others cry over small hurts, but not you. Let others leave their future in someone else's hands, but not you."

~Jim Rohn

This week on The Solari Report, Jon Rappoport will give his amazing presentation that literally brought down the house in San Mateo on June 29th. The question most on our minds when discussing trillions missing and the breakaway civilization is "What do I do?" Jon lays the foundation for a profoundly successful answer to that question.

In Money & Markets this week I will discuss the latest in world and financial news.

In Let's Go to the Movies, I will review Tim's Vermeer, a documentary about inventor Tim Jenison efforts to understand the painting techniques used by Dutch Master Johannes Vermeer. Rotten Tomatoes review describes as follows: "Entertaining and profound in equal measure, Tim's Vermeer uses its seemingly esoteric subject to pose fascinating questions about art and obsession."

Highlights from Last Week's Report

"Mark is a design illustrator who has spent many decades working with the aeronautics industry and the defense industry. As a result, he has really made it a passion to study the technology that is being developed both in the black world as well as more broadly. I had the opportunity to see his presentation at the Secret Space Program and was very impressed."
