Solari Report Update

2nd Quarter Wrap-Up

"You'll see some very interesting changes in your conception of reality. But you have to remain grounded at the same time. Because you are living in this world, in this form of reality. That's the trick, to remain grounded." Jack True, in interview with Jon Rappoport

By Catherine Austin Fitts

This week on The Solari Report, more on "breaking away" as I present my 2nd Quarter Wrap Up.

The first half of 2014 has been profoundly power shifting. I will review the most important events in the financial markets and geopolitical stories that highlight the primary trends impacting your time and finances. My goal is to help you see the strategic areas of investment opportunity and risk as they unfold within the events around us.

In Let's Go to the Movies, I will review the Belgian police thriller Salamander. Salamander has been purchased by the BBC and is scheduled for an English-speaking remake. A fascinating case study in the nature of political governance and control in the 21st century, Salamander underscores the power and importance of "control files." For those of you trying to understand the latest round of pedophilia scandals in England and how compromising pictures in the wrong hands can drive people to extremes, this one is for you.

Highlights from Last Week's Report

"I'm remembering my recent talk at the Secret Space Program conference in San Mateo. I met some of you there. We had a great time, great conversations, and somewhere in that talk that I gave I said to the audience, 'I'm not trying to sell you anything else but you. That's it.'"
