My frustration with the media coverage of Ebola cases in Africa reached a tipping point this week!

The most insightful investigative reporter on the relationship between economic warfare and pandemics and disease is our very own Jon Rappoport. So I asked Jon to join me this week to discuss the politics and unanswered questions of pandemics.

As the Fed tapers and concerns about global liquidity grow, it is essential for you to know how to separate fact from fiction, especially when it comes to your health and the health and safety of those you love.

In Money & Markets this week I will discuss the latest in finance and geopolitics, including updates on the Fed taper and events in Ferguson, Missouri. In Let's Go to the Movies, I will review The Internet's Own Boy: The Story of Aaron Swartz.

Highlights from Last Week's Report

"We're going to talk about both an update on the market and how gold and silver are doing, and then we want to discuss the Fed taper which is going to have a pretty dramatic impact across the board on all markets, but particularly intriguing is the role that it will play in the gold and silver market."
