Solari Report Update

Border Wars with Zack Taylor - August 28th.

To

It's time to pay serious attention to what is happening on our borders. The variation between what the law requires the federal government to do, and what the federal government is actually doing or facilitating has profound implications for the future of US sovereignty and the US economy.

A country that cannot maintain its borders may not remain a country. If that sounds alarmist, please note we have Peggy Noonan, a respected WSJ editorialist, conveying a trial balloon for breaking up the United States. Doing so is one way for those who now control the assets that have been stolen to rid themselves of the US Constitution and governmental liabilities.

Zack Taylor, charter member of the National Association of Retired Border Officers (NARBO), joins me this week on the Solari Report for an in depth look at what is happening on our borders. This includes a tour of the darker issues involved – topics you rarely hear explored. This is information that is important for you to have while there is still time to take the actions necessary in our own lives as well as support the leadership that can do something about it. Mid-term elections are a time when you can be heard loud and clear.

It's the last week of the month so no Money & Markets. I will address your questions on our first Report after Labor Day.

Highlights from Last Week's Report

"I became very frustrated the other week about some of the media attention and the big lies on Ebola, so I thought it was imperative that we get him on. Jon has done enormous amounts of very deep investigative reporting for many decades on this topic, and in my opinion there is nobody better on the planet."
