Russia and the Ukraine Backstory with Anne Williamson - Sept. 4th

To

The most popular blog post at solari.com is Financial Coup d' Etat. It was written about my experience at an investment conference in London. I was presenting The Myth of the Rule of Law about the extraordinary windfalls enjoyed by private investors as a result of so-called "privatization" and the early engineering of the US housing bubble. I then heard a riveting presentation from former WSJ report and author Anne Williamson about a similar process in Russia and the former Soviet Union territories and one from John Laughland about, yet again, a similar process in Eastern Europe.

We realized that day that it was the same investment interests operating globally using the same models in country after country. Since then, as events unfold globally, I watch for the impact of investment flows on events throughout the seven continents – the financial interests and deals often involve deep connections.

This week Anne Williamson of Lok-N-Load Media joins me to discuss the devastating “privatization” of the Russian economy in the 1990’s as a critical history leading up to current events in the Ukraine. We will talk about what is happening in the Ukraine, Russia’s point of view and what that means to events ahead. This is a long, fascinating discussion on the real politik of US relations with Europe, Russia and the Ukraine today with an experienced author whose grasp of the global financial system, institutions and markets is first rate. You don’t want to miss it!

Highlights from Last Week's Report

"Ladies and Gentlemen, it's my privilege to welcome to The Solari Report a distinguished former government servant. Zack Taylor was a border patrol officer serving the United States government from 1976 to 2003, much of it along the Southwest border. Since that time, he is the founder of the National Association of Former Border Patrol Officers which also includes members from the Immigration and Naturalization Service."

"He and the Association have been speaking widely on some of the things that are happening on the border. I wanted to get Zack on to talk more deeply about some of the information he and the Association have presented to underscore how important I think it is that you familiarize yourself with it and with Zack's work."
