Solari Report Update

Vaxxed & Other Great Stories of Suppression with Jon Rappoport, May 12th.

To

The special interests that lobbied the Tribeca Film Festival to cancel the documentary VAXXED: From Cover Up to Catastrophe meant to suppress evidence that vaccines are contributing to an epidemic of autism. The suppression backfired. Instead, coverage of the documentary exploded, in no small part thanks to Robert De Niro's courageous interviews calling for an open discussion of the issues.

This latest dance of suppression inspired me to invite Jon Rappoport of No More Fake News to join me in a discussion of stories of suppression and heroes who outwit it. From the Inquisition through suppression of energy and health care technology to Dark Alliance allegations and other stories of outrageous media manipulation, in this week's Solari Report Jon and I review many important stories of suppression and the truth tellers who have brought them to light.

Let's face it: the better you see the game, the less likely that suppression will work.

In Let's Go to the Movies, we revisit Shut up and Sing, a fascinating documentary about the unsuccessful effort to intimate and censor the Dixie Chicks for criticism of George W. Bush and the Iraq War by their lead singer. Freedom of artistic expression is critical to freedom of speech and a free society, which is why the global political system invests a great deal of time and money trying to get popular artists and celebrities to toe the official line.

Highlights from Last Week - The Devil's Chessboard with David Talbot

Former CIA Director George H. W. Bush was quoted recently as saying “Americans can’t handle the truth.” We disagree. The Solari Report team knows you can handle the truth. In our next Solari Report, we offer you a powerful discussion with one of the most courageous truth-tellers in our midst as he explains one of the most important truths to help you understand how the world works today.

David Talbot is the founder, former CEO and editor-in-chief of Salon magazine. Since leaving Salon, he has continued writing and publishing most notably on the Kennedy administration and assassination. His latest book, The Devil's Chessboard, a biography of CIA Director Allen Dulles, was published in 2015, seven years after Talbot published Brothers: The Hidden History of the Kennedy Years.

Who arranged the assassination of John F. Kennedy in Dallas in 1963? Was it a lone gunman? Was it the Russians? Was it Fidel Castro? How about the Mob? Every lame explanation of that day has ultimately failed.

It was the Establishment that killed Kennedy — with Allen Dulles and the CIA at the very heart of organizing, executing and covering up the assassination. The conspiracy involved the full breadth of the “deep state” — segments of the military, the FBI, the Secret Service (and their boss, the Secretary of the Treasury) and the banking and investment centers in New York and Boston. It was financed with taxpayers resources. The America people picked up the bill.

Once you digest the facts that Talbot lays out, you will never look at the US Establishment in quite the same way. Indeed, I asked one of my most astute allies to read the book. Weeks after finishing it he remarked, “You know, I look at the world differently now.” To which I responded, “Why, you already knew that the Establishment killed Kennedy.” He replied, “It is one thing to believe it. It is quite another to finally learn the facts.”
