The Emerging Multipolar World with The Saker – Neocons & the War Lobby - February 8th

To Solari Readers

“Not only did the US military complex (MIC) bloat beyond any reasonable size, it also cloaked itself in so many layers of secrecy that massive corruption became inevitable. And when I speak of “massive corruption, I am not talking about millions but billions or even trillions. How? Simple – the Pentagon claimed it did not have the accounting tools needed to properly account for the missing money and that money was therefore not really “missing.” Another trick – no bid contracts. Or contracts which cover all the private contractor’s costs, no matter how high or ridiculous. Desert Storm was a bonanza for the MIC, as was 911 and the Global War on Terrorism (GWOT). Billions of dollars got printed out of thin air, distributed (mostly under the cover of national security), hidden (secrecy) and stolen (by everybody in this entire food chain).” ~ The Saker, “The Empire Should be Placed on Suicide Watch”

This week on The Solari Report, The Saker joins me on our quarterly Emerging Multipolar World to discuss his new book The Essential Saker II: Civilizational Choices and Geopolitics: The Russian challenge to the Hegemony of the AngloZionist Empire.

We have a long list of topics to discuss:

Domestic:

- I. Growing power of the Neocons and their relationship to the Israeli and war lobbies.
- II. FISA Memo distraction and the inability of the Washington establishment to find any evidence that the Russians interfered with the US elections.

III. Purges in Hollywood and the media:
are the US elites fighting each other and,
if yes, why?

Global:

I. New national defense strategies published by President Trump and Secretary Mattis – and what they mean to the balance of power between the US, Russia, China and, in President Trump's words in the State of the Union, " anyone else." The impact of proposed increases in the defense budget – in the State of the Union President Trump embraced a $1.5 trillion upgrade of the nuclear arsenal and Secretary Mattis proposed a $50 billion increase in his subsequent speech at the Greenbriar retreat on top of the $59 billion increase in the current defense authorization.

II. The war lobby makes money persuading nations to prepare for war.
Can anyone really benefit from a war?

III. What's ahead for US relations with Iran, North Korea and Russia.

Middle East:

I. Collapse of the US 'plan D' in the Syrian Kurdistan as a sign of a weakened Empire

II. Attacks on Russians in Syria and the downed SU-25: is Russia in trouble in Syria?

- I. Political impact on the proposed latest US sanctions against Russian corporations and individuals
- II. Presidential election in Russia – does it matter and why?
- III. Risks of a fullscale Ukrainian attack on the Donbass this Spring/Summer

In Money & Markets this week I will discuss the latest in financial and geopolitical news. Email or post your questions for Ask Catherine.

Special Public Solari Report: Free Ross Ulbricht

"This case is the birth of law as applied to our digital future. Watch it as a spectator at your peril." ~ Scott H. Greenfield, criminal defense attorney

By Catherine Austin Fitts

Lyn Ulbricht of FreeRoss.org joins me on the Solari Report to discuss the Petition for Writ of Certiorari filed in December by her son Ross Ulbricht and his legal team to the Supreme Court, asking the Court to review and reconsider the lower courts' decisions, based on constitutional violations in his investigation and sentencing. (See on Scotus Blog here) On February 5, 2018, twenty-one organizations filed five amicus briefs in support of the Supreme Court petition.

I hope and pray that a just decision will finally see Ross Ulbricht walk free, putting an end to a saga that began in 2013 and constitutes one of the worst examples of prosecutorial abuse I have seen yet.

As the target of the Department of Justice, I watched federal attorneys and law enforcement officers lie and falsify documentation. I had a team of government investigators and attorneys in my company offices unsupervised, only to discover that one or more had taken the liberty of falsifying corporate records (luckily we had a witness on that one) and urinating and defecating in our offices. (Yes – we got to clean it up – Here's my interview with the CEO of the cleaning company who was there and lived to tell the tale.)

I say this to give you a sense of the extraordinary debasement of federal enforcement.

No need, however, to depend on my story. Learn what happened to distinguished civil servants Bill Binney and Tom Drake and Congressional staff Diane Roark. Learn why the judge in the Bundy Ranch case had no choice except to dismiss the case with prejudice, the government's lawlessness was so egregious. Or listen to Howard Root after he soundly defeated DOJ in court after a five-year ordeal explain why he sold his company because running a company in a lawless environment is too risky. Now we are hearing indications that federal enforcement may have used campaign financed dossiers to try to rig a Presidential campaign and destroy a Presidency.

The worst case I have heard yet is what is happening to Ross Ulbricht. My first clue was listening to a TED talk by a retired DOJ prosecutor. This speech was particularly frightening as the attorney, bragging about her involvement in the Silk Road case, was not even ashamed as she described members of a federal task force falsify evidence, stage a homicide, and steal millions of assets for personal gain. if you have 22 minutes to waste watching a former federal prosecutor demonstrate the cluelessness of a lawless culture, I have posted below.

I then had the opportunity to hear Lyn speak and watch the Deep Web documentary. Having dealt with the same federal playbook, there is no doubt in my mind that Ross Ulbricht is entirely truthful in his description of the case.

In this interview, Lyn discusses the case and why it is so important to you and me. Solari has contributed to Ross' legal defense fund. In fact, I believe this Supreme Court petition is so important, the defense fund was one of our two Christmas donations for 2017.

I would encourage you to listen to Lyn's interview and donate at FreeRoss.org No amount is too small. Every donation expresses critical support.

This interview is open to the public, so please pass the link on and encourage others to do the same.

I am holding out a picture of Ross Ulbricht as a free man. Please help us make it so!

The Black Budget: The Crossroads of (Un)Constitutional Appropriations and Reporting

“The $52.6 billion “black budget” for fiscal 2013, obtained by The Washington Post from former intelligence contractor Edward Snowden, maps a bureaucratic and operational landscape that has never been subject to public scrutiny. Although the government has annually released its overall level of intelligence spending since 2007, it has not divulged how it uses the money or how it performs against the goals set by the president and Congress.” ~Barton Gellman and Greg Miller

Excerpt:

Even in just the last few days, there have been concerns that the bill that ended the recent government shutdown included provisions allowing the Executive branch to fund covert action without Congressional oversight or going through the usual Congressional oversight committees. The provision is currently a subject of debate, with a potential amendment to remove the exception opposed by some in Congress. (see Kelly, Erin, Spending Bill Limited Congress' Oversight of Secret Intelligence Activities, Senators Say, available at <https://www.usatoday.com/story/news/politics/2018/01/23/senate-intel-leaders-say-bill-reopen-government-strips-them-power-gives-white-hgives-white-house-mor/1057919001/>. As it stands, this bill waives the later discussed (already very limited) reporting and appropriation requirements of the National Security Act. It's not hard to see why it has raised more than a few eyebrows. Steps to change the language of the waiver were reportedly blocked in Congress. (see Nelson, Steven, Provision in Shutdown-Ending Bill Stokes Fear of Oversight-Free Intelligence Spending, available at <http://www.washingtonexaminer.com/provision-in-shutdown-ending-bill-stokes-fear-of-oversight-free-intelligence-spending/article/2646894>).

With such a recent move towards limiting Congress, and the people's, oversight in a situation already sparse on oversight, appropriations compliance, and reporting compliance. The time has never been better to ask, what is the Black Budget? How did it come to be? How does it work and, perhaps most importantly, how and why is it considered legal and constitutional?

Highlights from Last Week - Solari Food Series - Dr. Don Huber - Food Patriot

"I have studied plant pathogens for more than 50 years. We are now seeing an unprecedented trend of increasing plant and animal diseases and disorders." ~Dr. Don Huber

This week in the next segment for the Food Series on The Solari Report, Harry Blazer will speak to Dr. Don Huber, a retired colonel of US military intelligence, a professor and a scientist.

In 2011, Dr. Huber wrote a letter to the Secretary of Agriculture stating as follows:

"January 17, 2011

Dear Secretary Vilsack:

A team of senior plant and animal scientists have recently brought to my attention the discovery of an electron microscopic pathogen that appears to significantly impact the health of plants, animals, and probably human beings. Based on a review of the data, it is widespread, very serious, and is in much higher concentrations in Roundup Ready (RR) soybeans and corn—suggesting a link with the RR gene or more likely the presence of Roundup. This organism appears NEW to science!

This is highly sensitive information that could result in a collapse of U.S. soy and corn export markets and significant disruption of domestic food and feed supplies. On the other hand, this new organism may already be responsible for significant harm (see below). My colleagues and I are therefore moving our investigation forward with speed and discretion, and seek assistance from the USDA and other entities to identify the pathogen's source, prevalence, implications, and remedies.

We are informing the USDA of our findings at this early stage, specifically due to your pending decision regarding approval of RR alfalfa. Naturally, if either the RR gene or Roundup itself is a promoter or co-factor of this pathogen, then such approval could be a calamity. Based on the current evidence, the only reasonable action at this time would be to delay deregulation at least until sufficient data has exonerated the RR system, if it does.

For the past 40 years, I have been a scientist in the professional and military agencies that evaluate and prepare for natural and manmade biological threats, including germ warfare and disease outbreaks. Based on this experience, I believe the threat we are facing from this pathogen is unique and of a high-risk status. In layman's terms, it should be treated as an emergency."

As you can imagine, this letter and other public statements have subjected Dr. Huber to a significant amount of "pushback," which Harry and he discuss.

Making sure you and your family have access to high-quality fresh food should be one of your personal and financial priorities. If you are saving money by eating food that looks like food but has been invisibly poisoned by pesticides and unnatural pathogens, shouldn't switching to real food be a higher priority than putting money in your IRA, 401k or pension plan to finance the governments and companies that are debasing our food supply? If you are saving money by eating fake food, you are much less likely to reach retirement age, let alone enjoy health if you do. The successful financial strategy is to prevent chronic disease rather than save increasing amounts of money to ensure you can afford to finance decades of expensive care for your own and your loved ones' chronic diseases.

This interview is both sobering and inspiring. Dr. Huber's information is frightening – whether regarding the harm being intentionally done to the food system or his exposure to members of our military intelligence interested in using the food system for control and depopulation. His courageous protection of his fellow man and future generations is inspiring. Dr. Huber provides “actionable intel” that can save your health and life and protect you and your family from chronic diseases and financial drain. As always, Harry makes sure the consequences of Dr. Huber’s information are clear.

This interview will also help you understand exploding health care costs in the United States and the impact they will have on your taxes, health care, and health care insurance. Of course, health care is expensive if people are experiencing a steady decline of nutrition while being poisoned. Of course, we will have political problems and higher expenses if we re-elect the politicians, finance their government deficits, and subsidize the corporate leadership doing this!

Our collective future depends on changing the governance system that has permitted this to happen. As always, this comes back to enforcing the Constitution and the federal financial laws. This cuts off the endless flow of secret and non-accountable money.
