Deep State and the Re-engineering of America with Harry Blazer

By Catherine Austin Fitts

This week Harry Blazer joins me to discuss the “Deep State.” This is the first conversation on this critical topic, with more to follow.

The Deep State has received a lot of coverage over the last few years. Unfortunately, it is difficult to navigate through the misinformation and disinformation – much of which is intentional.

I asked Harry to join me to define the Deep State and how it operates.

Solari Wellness Series: Longevity

In the first episode of this series, we focus on the time period from the passage of the National Security Act and the creation of the CIA until the end of the Eisenhower administration. We rely as our primary source on the books and interviews of L. Fletcher Prouty – a former Air Force colonel and insider who, more than than anyone else, has shed light on Establishment mechanisms and structures that have enabled the contemporary Deep State.

The primary forces that shape our world are covert. Those forces have grown considerably since the late 1940s when the national security state was formally created and given unimpeded access to a powerful US federal budget and credit mechanisms. Using the global reserve currency and securities markets, the national security state has married US sovereign cash flows and credit with the high-margin flows of organized crime, insider transactions and trading, and war. The result is a global economy and culture defined by violence, intrigue and secrecy.

This discussion is the first in a series that is designed to demonstrate that the Deep State exists and is a profound influence on every aspect of our lives. As always, we believe that by shining light and promoting transparency, we can help our subscribers and others navigate the head winds and live a free and inspired life. See story here.

In Let's Go to the Movies! I recommend JFK – Oliver Stones excellent film on the Kennedy assassination and the efforts by New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison to establish that the assassination was a conspiracy and to prosecute some of the co-conspirators.

Pretty Good Knowledge with Bill Binney and Kurt Wiebe

This week on the Solari Report I talk with Bill Binney and Kirk Wiebe about their new company that they call

Pretty Good Knowledge.

Bill and Kirk describe Pretty Good Knowledge as a young company with a long history. They and their team bring together decades of experience in discovering knowledge from data and combining it with the latest data science techniques and technologies.

Every enterprise – big or small – struggles to make sense of an overwhelming data. We want our data to help us do a better job and we want our data to be secure. Bill and Kirk can help.

It's big news when one of the top teams in data science in the world becomes accessible to private organizations – consequently, this Solari Report will be open to the public. Please feel free to share widely.
